FOURTH QUIET IN THIS CITY, COUPLE WEDS

Both Riverview and Cascade Parks Had Many Visitors; Bride Given Bungalow

This city passed a very quiet Fourth of July, and it resembled Sunday much more than the birthday of the nation. Fireworks were on the prohibited list throughout the city, but an occasional explosion drew attention to the fact that some irresponsible youth was giving vent to his enthusiasm.

Riverview park had a fair sized crowd in the afternoon, and a big crowd in the evening. The much talked about wedding at the park took place as advertised. The groom turned out to be Frank A. O'Neil, who gave his home as Denver, and the bride was Mrs. Lenora Mores, 50, of Wooster. Mayor Jones was on hand and married the couple at four o'clock, from a stand on the midway. At the conclusion of the ceremony the groom presented his bride with a deed for a $8000 bungalow at Wooster. He also told the crowd that he was going to take his bride for a wedding trip to Denver, and that on their return they would live in Wooster, closing by inviting those present to visit their home if they ever came his way.

In the evening a fine display of fireworks was discharged, much to the pleasure of the large crowd present.

UNION OFFERED TO BUY GUNS FOR MARCH

Testifies in Mingo Co. Miners' March Trial of Alleged Activity of Organization

LEWISBURG, W. Va., July 5.—Promise of the international organization of the United mine workers would stand good for the purchase of guns and ammunition to be used in the march on Logan county in 1921, if the local members could not furnish a sufficient number of weapons, was made the Clothier local by Fred Mooney, treasurer of district 17, William Swanner, a member of the local, told the jury hearing the case against William Blizard, charged with being a leader in the miners' march and now on trial for murder.

Mooney addressed the Clothier local a few days before the march started up the Coal River valley. Swanner testified and told the men that unless they armed themselves and took part in the march they would experience the same sort of trouble as had resulted in the proclamation of martial law in Mingo county.

"If the local hasn't got the funds to buy guns and ammunition, you can get them and the international will stand good for the expense," Swanner quoted Mooney as saying.

As a result of Mooney's speech, Swanner testified, arrangements were made to buy forty rifles and that his father made a trip to Charleston to bring back the guns. Swanner testified he was present when twenty miners fired into an automobile carrying a man named Embury and his family. He said the miners thought the car was carrying state police into the trouble zone.

How district officers took control of the funds of the local treasures at the time of the march was related by Swanner who said a man called Childers, a member of the local on Horse Creek, had gone to district headquarters at Charleston and returned with an order signed by C. Fred Keeney, president of the district, demanding that all funds, including approximately $600 in the local "burial funds" be turned over to Childers.

Swanner testified that the money was to be used in the purchase of ammunition for the march.

HUNT NEGRO IN SLAYING OF MAID

SCARSDALE, N. Y., July 5.—Police of West Chester county today spread a net for a negro thought to have been the fiend who attacked and killed Miss Dorothy Kauffman, a maid in the home of Magruder Craighead, when she turned from the door to get him some food.

Evidence of a terrific struggle was not lacking. There were seven deep cuts in Miss Kauffman's back, three of which have caused death, and her throat was cut. Police say the murder was a most brutal one.

Of Miss Kauffman's past life little is known except that she was at one time a teacher in a rural school in Somerset county, Maryland. Her parents are said to be living in that county and telegrams have been sent to the authorities there asking them to locate the girl's father and mother, but no reply has yet been forthcoming.

Miss Kauffman visited her home town about a month ago, it is learned. She was a girl of evident refinement and well brought up and Mr. and Mrs. Craighead and the two children of whom she had charge, were much attached to her.

The Ku Klux Klan, from Lorain, held an initiation Tuesday evening, in an open field near dead man's curve, north of Elyria and it is reported that about 1000 men mostly from Lorain, and a few from Elyria took the vows.

There were about 1000 of the Klansmen present, many of them in their robes and masks. A crowd of 1000 or more spectators were allowed to witness the ceremonies from the street, but were not allowed to come close to where it was going on. At its conclusion a large cross was burned having been covered with tar and oil in order to make it burn readily. There was no disorder, and the Klansmen soon after drove away in their automobiles. One of them told a spectator that they expected to start a lodge in Elyria within a short time.

NOTED ACTRESS SAYS HUSBY BRUTAL

Ethel Barrymore Testifies Wealthy Manufacturer Blackened Her Eyes

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 5.—Ethel Barrymore, noted actress, was granted a divorce today from Russell Colt of Bristol, R. I., wealthy manufacturer.

The divorce was granted on grounds of non-support, although the main basis set forth in her petition was "extreme cruelty."

Stories of blows inflicted by her husband and one of a severe beating that left her unable to continue her part in a play were laid before the court in depositions by Miss Barrymore.

"I was in my room one evening in April, 1920," her deposition read, "when my husband came in and we began discussing certain persons. I made an unfortunate remark about a certain person."

He was enraged and struck me in the face with something he held in his hand. He hit me again and again. He beat me terribly. Then he left the room.

"I was in such a terrible condition that I had to send for a physician. He attempted to fix up my face but I could not go out of my room for five days because of the swollen condition of my face and two black eyes."

It was necessary during this period, the deposition said, to discontinue the play she was appearing in.

Six months after marriage, according to Miss Barrymore's testimony, she received her first black eye from her husband. She applied raw meat, she said and was able to make her next performance.

This was in 1909, according to the deposition and was caused by her asking Colt why he came home late one evening.

On another occasion, she testified, her husband beat her and threw her out of a hotel room and locked the door, leaving her in the hallway clad only in her nightgown.

"I had to get another room in which I passed the nights," she said, "I had nothing with me but the nightgown I was wearing."

TACOMA, Wash., July 5.—President Harding paid a signal tribute today to the ex-service men who lost their lives in the I. W. W. rioting at Centralia, three years ago. Early this morning, when his special train reached Centralia, scene of the riots, the president arose and leaving his train in the station, went to the cemeteries where the veterans are buried and placed a wreath on the graves.

"The whole world," said the president, "was shocked by their deaths. Those guilty of the crime struck at the very bulwark of our republic, at the very who saved it, and the men who must be counted upon to preserve it."

and her two children, Walter, aged four, and Helen, two. Mrs. Pitloski's husband found the bodies in a gas-filled room early today.

Authorities are seeking Michael Globas, a former boarder, whose photograph stood close by in the death room. One of Globas' cards noted found scribbled "my favor is to die." Pitloski said the writing was not his wife's.

"Globas paid marked attention to my wife," Pitloski told police. "I quarreled with her about it, but she just laughed away my fears. Yesterday Globas left our house saying he was going to meet his wife and baby who had just landed at Ellis Island from Italy."

Authorities believe Mrs. Pitloski, following Globas' departure, put her two children to sleep and then turned on the gas.

If the writing on Globas' card is found to be his, he will be questioned as to the meaning of the words, authorities said.

IRENE CASTLE ASKS DIVORCE

PARIS, July 5.—Mrs. Irene Castle Treman, whose suit for divorce has been filed in the Zine tribunal, was scheduled to motor to Deauville this afternoon with her husband.

Friends said the dancer and her husband planned to take the "Deauville reconciliation cure" before their case is called for hearing in the Zine tribunal reconciliation court which, under French law, is a preliminary step to an actual divorce hearing.

Though Dudley Field Malone, former collector of the port of New York, admitted yesterday he was Mrs. Treman's attorney in the divorce action, she declared the suit had been filed "without her authorization."

Reports are numerous recently that there was a domestic rift in the dancer's affairs and that she had long contemplated a divorce.

Treman, a wealthy manufacturer and former aviation officer, arrived in Paris recently from his home in Ithaca, N. Y., and friends of the couple say his earnest efforts effected a reconciliation.

Yesterday, after the news of the divorce action became known, Mrs. Treman dined with her husband on the Bois De Boulogne.

AN ATTORNEY NIES OF BOOZE

TON, July 5.—Phil B. E. 45, former prosecuting attorney and city solicitor at New York, died Monday afternoon at the New York hotel, the death certificate stating the cause to have been acute alcoholism.

According to information received, Smythe was called from New York at 2 a. m. Sunday by members of the Klan who are to have informed the family of his death.

RESURFACE TWO STREETS

ERLIN, July 5.—At Council Monday evening, it was decided to resurface E. College street from Main street to the fork Central tracks, further to resurface W. Lorain street from Woodland avenue to Prospect.

A large delegation of city owners were present. All seemed in favor of the work.

As this work is completed on E. and Lorain streets, in connection with the improvement of the village, it will be a beautiful stretch of high-rising east and west in Oberlin.

ECIAL TRAIN PLEASES MANY

ERLIN, July 5.—The Service Special, which is being cited over the lines of the N. R. R. arrived in Oberlin today at 1:45 amid much cheering. It brought with it a large crowd of people, an exhibition of the latest of the world's most famous locomotives costing $75,000. The famous Emulate Express followed, with its famous DeWitt Clinton's engine.

The engines were lowered from one of the cars, of which there were 7 following the engines and a number of Oberlin people drove through these cars on an excursion.

Some of the engines were filled with interested spectators, to whom this opportunity was probably once in a life time.

Speakers addressed the

SHELBY COUNTS ITS LOSSES IN FIGHT; DEMPSEY IS WINNER

SHELBY, Mont., July 5.—It is the morning after the debacle and Shelby, just one of a thousand towns nestled in the prairie, is a scene of confusion. It was the focal point of a nation's interest, prepared today to live down the saddest memory of the Dempsey-Gibbons transaction for the heavyweight championship. Its preparation was hurried, but thorough. Long before the eastern sky line had heralded the approach of another day many of the transients had gone.

Gone, too, were the raucous, profiteering concessionaires, the temporary traffic guardians and the cots in hotel corridors. Gone was Jack Dempsey, the successful champion, taking with him a sum not less than $250,000, the total receipts of the enterprise. Gone, also, was Shelby's further interest in affairs of the fist. The town, or, to be more exact, several prominent citizens thereof, stand to lose about $200,000 for the privilege of having itself overrun by fighters, pickpockets, prominent bartenders and similar undesirables.

Pays For Folly

Shelby is all over and done with so far as the promotion of prize fights is concerned and it can now turn to the matter of removing the final moment of its folly by demolishing the arena with its thousands of superfluous seats.

The I. T. S. city team lost one of the hardest fought games of the season to the Holly-Krohns of Lorain, at Penfield Junction yesterday afternoon, the game going thirteen innings. Granev went into the box in the ninth and fanned seven men. He formerly played with the Cleveland Indians. H. Tulk got a home run and E. Tulk a two base hit. The game was full of snappy fielding on both sides, and interest in the game was intense until the Krohns succeeded in shoving a run across with a walk, a sacrifice and a hit.

DRAEGERT WINS 8 TO 1 FROM ROSENS

Ray Draegert, Elyria twirler, came back in the Cleveland Triple A division, and pitched the Clark's Lunches to within hailing distance of the top when he defeated the Rosenblums 8 to 1 and evened up a 7 to 2 defeat administered the victors earlier in the season.

Draegert stayed in the box the entire route. The Clark Lunches drove Rube Marquet from the mound and also pounded hard, Clark and Crowley.

Sid Lee, former Elyria player, played third for the Clark's Lunches and had one run and two hits in four times at bat, had two put outs and four assists and an error.

Draegert failed to connect in four trips to the plate. He had two assists to his credit.

FARM LABOR PARTY BREAK IS FORECAST

CHICAGO, July 5.—A faction headed by William C. Foster, recently in court, with C. E. Ruthenberg, tussled today with the Illinois delegation for control of the farmer labor party convention here.

The convention was called to unite the minorities into a third party for the 1924 presidential race.

At a caucus the Illinois delegation adopted a resolution declaring for unity "but with Americanism."

Several of the delegates are members of the platform committee and hope to insert a plank embodying their patriotic views. The platform committee was to report late this afternoon.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 5.

Two of the four balloons entered in the national elimination contest here still were aloft today, according to meager reports drifting back to Indianapolis. One floated high above the city, was easily discernible as it traveled eastward.

The "City of Detroit," piloted by Ralph Upson, and the "City of Akron," piloted by Jack Boettner, balloons entered in the national elimination contest were reported down at Wapakoneta, O., and Hartford City, Ind., in advices received at race headquarters.

Low wind velocity throughout last night made it appear unlikely that record distance had been negotiated.

Indications were that the balloon piloted by Lieutenant Robert S. Olmsted, representing the army, might be in the lead. At an early hour today a message from him dropped and picked up at Custar, Ohio, reported him flying at an altitude of one thousand feet. The message said he was headed for Bowling Green, Ohio. The message was dropped at 5:30 o'clock.

Across the state of Indiana, the giant gas bags showed a surprising tendency to stick together, six having been reported over Noblesville and Anderson, and four over Marion, O. Later, however, air currents began to separate the fliers who by taking advantage of the velocity at higher altitudes hoped to outdistance their competitors.

Warren Razor, of Brookville, O., did not start. His mount failed him because of a leaky valve which could not be repaired at starting time.

Although Ken Williams knocked out his twelfth homer, it availed naught, for the Browns went down to defeat twice before the White Sox.

The Braves did not fittingly observe the holiday, exploding in both games with the Dodgers.

MANY CONTESTS AT FRIENDLY BIBLE CLASS PICNIC ON WEDNESDAY

Sixty-two members and guests of the Friendly Bible class Baptist church enjoyed the annual outing at Cascade park, July 4th. At twelve-thirty several tables were placed together and surrounded by the merry-makers. At two o'clock the sports committee, consisting of Harold G. Briggs and George Sweet, called the class together for the athletic events which were entered into with enthusiasm by all present, and the following persons carried the honors:

Boys' race, 7 to 12—Wm. Cox. Girls' race, 7 to 12—Marion Finley.

Boys' race, 13 to 18—Murray Finley.

Junior race—Dolores Finley. Men's race—H. G. Briggs. Ladies' race—Mrs. Leon Raymond.

Clothes-pin contest (men)—Walter E. Finley. Clothes-pin contest (ladies)—Mrs. B. F. Quick. Peanut roll—Marion Quick. Peanut race—Mrs. C. H. Baylor. Three-leg race—L. E. Palmer, Clayton Sweet.

Cracker-eating contest (boys)—Walter E. Finley. Cracker-eating contest (girls)—Elizabeth Baylor.

Potato race—W. C. Cox. Appropriate prizes were awarded to the winners of each contest.

W. B. Mauson, of New York City, who with his family is the guest of the Ott and Briggs families, took pictures of the table and various groups of the class during the sports events.

During the afternoon the men enjoyed baseball, quilts and other athletics. Promptly at 5:30, Mrs. H. K. Finley, who had charge of menu, announced dinner and the tables were again surrounded. At which time Loren E. Palmer conducted a brief song service followed by prayer led by Rev. J. T. Briggs of Lorain, who with his wife was a guest of the class. Following the dinner ice cream and cones were served to all present.

The Friendly Bible class is taught by H. K. Finley, who has conducted a six-months study in the Book of Revelation; however, the activities of the class have now been suspended until September 15th when the studies will be resumed on Tuesday evenings.

NET CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT HERE TO START MONDAY

Elyria's City Tennis Championships are scheduled to get under way the first of next week and some keen competition is looked for when some of the local artists stack up against each other.

Any one in the City is eligible to enter either the singles or doubles or both as long as Elyria is at present their home.

Entries are to be handed in at the main desk at the Y. M. C. A. for an entry fee of twenty-five cents for each entry is charged. This money will be used to buy medals for the championships in the doubles. The Earl Brown cup is still up for the winner of this year's championship in the singles as it must be won two years by one who expects to claim it for good. The first year this cup was won by Bob Savage and last year it was won by Dick Horan. This year it looks as the there will be a battle royal for the honor of winning this cup.

The Y. M. C. A. tennis committee who are making arrangements for the tournament have decided that the singles tournament would start Monday July 9th, and that the doubles championships would start Monday, July 16th. A certain number of days will be given for each

Tagging The Bases

The Yankees continue to rope the field, going west with a lead of 11-2 games. They made five circuit smashes in handing the Senators a double beating.

The Giants celebrated Independence Day by outwitting the Phillies into submission in both games. Grimm swatted the ball for a percentage of .600 and his hitting enabled the Pirates to annex both games from the Cardinals.

Piercy, Red Sox, won his first victory of the season for eleven defeats, when Boston trounced the Athletics after losing the first game.

Pinch hitter Matt's home run in the tenth gave the Indians the morning game over the Tigers, but Detroit knocked out a hollow victory in the afternoon.

found to be played and if a player does not play within that time the game shall be forfeited. Games can be played on any court in the city that the players can agree upon but if no agreement can be reached the game shall be played on the excellent courts at Cascade Park.

Saturday is the last day for signing up for both championships and players are urged to sign up at once at the Y. M. C. A. Those wanting information can see any of the following: Paul and Bob Savage, Dick Horan, Harold Stone, Harold Gearhart, Ralph Jones, W. O. McClellan or the Y. M. C. A. offices.

STUDEBAKER

PLANT No. 2 South Bend, Ind. Open and Closed Studebaker, etc. For all models

(Plants 3, 4, and 5, Detroit, where the Big-Six, the Special-Six and Service Parts are made, are not shown in this illustration)

The Studebaker Light-Six

was designed by Studebaker engineers and manufactured complete in the NEW STUDEBAKER PLANTS AT SOUTH BEND, IND., which are notable in design, size and equipment for efficient and economical manufacture.

The South Bend Plants contain 4,875,000 square feet of floor space.

They employ 12,000 persons.

They cost $33,250,000.

The South Bend Forge Plant cost $4,000,000, which alone is more than the total assets of many automobile companies.

And then there are:

- The machine shops which cost $7,000,000.
- The stamping plant which cost $4,000,000.
- The new foundries which will cost over $2,000,000.
- The power plants which cost $2,500,000.
- The assembly and stock plants which cost $5,000,000, as well as closed and open body plants, spring shops, etc.

Studebaker plants, in cost and size, are the second largest of the world's automobile plants.

Studebaker is the second strongest financially of the automobile manufacturers of the world.

These facts show why it is possible for Studebaker to produce the Light-Six—a truly remarkable car—and sell it for less than a thousand dollars.

In actual car value per dollar of price the Light-Six is in a class by itself. No prospective buyer of an automobile should decide on anything until he has seen and driven this car.

It is backed by a corporation with $85,000,000 of actual net assets and a 71-year reputation for honest products and fair dealing.

Vast Resources Make Possible High Value at Low Price in Studebaker Light-Six

Studebaker's vast resources are utilized to manufacture (not assemble) the Light-Six complete in the newest and most modern large automobile plants in the world.

The Corporation's resources, consisting of $85,000,000 of actual net assets, including $45,000,000 of plants, make it possible for Studebaker to offer a six-cylinder car, at less than $1,000, that is emphatically superior in design, construction, performance, comfort and dependability, to any car within hundreds of dollars of its price.

By complete manufacture, Studebaker not only guards the quality of each part, but saves the middlemen's profits, with the result that no other make of car ever built, by anyone, at any price, represents so great a dollar-for-dollar value as the Light-Six.

Evidence of its mechanical superiority is found in its practical freedom from vibration. This is accomplished by the perfect balance of the motor. Perfect balance is obtained largely through the complete machining of all surfaces of the crankshaft and connecting rods. This requires 61 precision operations.

This method is followed exclusively by Studebaker on cars at this price. In fact, very few other cars have this feature, and their prices are from three to ten times as great as that of the Light-Six.

It is significant, therefore, that the sale of more than 80,000 Studebaker cars during the first six months of this year broke all records.

Buyers are justified in expecting more for their money in a Studebaker than in any other car.

DISAPPOINTED AT THE SHOWING

Chairman Hull, of the Democratic national committee is reported to have said that he was "disappointed" at the saving made in government expenditures by the present national administration. The "disappointment" of Chairman Hull is perhaps less keen than the disappointment of President Harding himself. Chairman Hull naturally looks with political bitterness on the one side of the question while President Harding probably feels political regret that more was not accomplished along the line of government economy.

It is well for each individual to contemplate the matter from a personal standpoint. No matter what you do in the expectation of financial efficiency you are disappointed that you have not made a greater showing. In large affairs and small the natural tendency is to cut down, to cut to the "limit" in as many cases as possible, and when the result is summed up you find the most careful calculations were not productive of the net savings you had expected.

Public business is a little more difficult than private business. A community, or a commonwealth, or even the Nation strives to cut costs in as many places as possible, and the responsible executive finds at the end and as a result of efforts made, there has not been as good a showing as had been intended when the movement started, nor the things accomplished which had been anticipated. Handling a big budget is a very different matter. If an individual has difficulty in handling his personal budget to his entire satisfaction he has but to multiply his own personal disadvantages many times to realize what is possible of accomplishment in the larger operations of the government.

Disappointment develops when we plan to do things which we are unable to accomplish, and though Chairman Hull may be keenly disappointed over what the Nation has done, it must also be recognized that in doing less than he has hoped President Harding also feels keen disappointment. However the people of the country are likely to note with some satisfaction that some saving has been made, and generally they will approve plans for such savings even though the sum saved does not equal expectations. We all of us recognize that saving money, public or private is a hard job, and we all, naturally, share in the disappointment of those who have been seeking to make savings and who are not able to make the savings as great as their expectations.

MR. BOK'S PRIZE

Edward W. Bok has offered a prize of one hundred thousand dollars for the plan which will be considered the most workable and available for permanent peace among the nations.

While the world is in the midst of wars and the minds of millions are upon this question, we can imagine nothing which would more arrest the attention, and challenge the effort of hundreds if not thousands of people than this proposition of Mr. Bok. To be sure, it seems that almost every possible plan has been suggested, and the difficulty is that no real plan has been tried, and of course it is probable that there will be a vast difference of opinion as to the wisdom of any particular plan proposed.

But the fact that Mr. Bok has made this offer, in itself is of great value and the publication of the various plans proposed and the publicity given them and the discussions concerning them will do a tremendous amount of good in generating public sentiment toward the end that Mr. Bok desires. For after all, he knows that the plan or method is unimportant if the end is accomplished. The shell is of no consequence. It is the meat that he is after, and out of the discussion of the proposed plans will come clearer views and this nation and consequently other nations will be closer to the great ideal.

GAINING REPUTATION

Senator James F. Couzens of Michigan has come out for five per cent beer and says that he proposes to make this his campaign slogan. It is strange that just about the time one begins to get a good opinion of some public men they expose themselves in a manner to indicate that they were just bluffing.

We all of us fall for the fellow who comes along and tells us he can do what we have been unable to accomplish. And sometimes he proves how big the problem was by failing to solve it.

One trouble with business men is that they too often say "A Charge to Keep I Have." Business would be better if bills were paid more promptly.

Well, Dempsey is still the champ. He gave Gibbons about everything he had, except the three hundred thousand he got for his end.

Shelby, Montana, probably is sadder but wiser. The dear public didn't seem to fall for Horace Greely's slogan, "Go west young man."

After a 'yellow' champ for a year or two, he's worth a million or so. When it comes to fighting millions, I'll take a chance with Rockefeller. He's got as much money as Dempsey and when it comes to fighting, he's more playful.

What Gibbons did to Dempsey's jaw came over the radio. Jack will give Campbell's soup a tough battle for a week or so.

All the money Gibbons received wouldn't fill a flappers' hand bag if they paid him in German marks.

But he had a nice experience and it was a nice ride for the misses and the kids.

They changed the ring, enlarging it from 13 to 20 feet. They'd have to add another acre to get me in it.

If Dempsey ever hit you or me with that left, we'd just about come in time to vote for Harding.

I was really for Gibbons. You see he ain't got the jack that Jack has, and if Dempsey lost he could make good money at his old job—in the shipyard.

Guess the Saint Paul challenger pestered out.

Great Falls, is the place in Montana where Dempsey made his headquarters. Montana seems to "fall" for anything.

Now you can buy a seat for a return match in the east, for about sixty dollars a copy.

Shelby got a lot of advertising, but the promoters made wouldn't go far towards paying what Germany owes France.

My idea of a good way to fight—by radio.

"There's one born every minute." But there wasn't very many of 'em went to Montana.

Now you'll hear the "wise ones" tell how they knew Dempsey would win, but they didn't bet very much of Uncle Sam's money.

Next time they come together I think they ought to let Gibbons carry a brick in either hand.

And the fight was held under the auspices of the American Legion, laugh that off.

Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, wife of the governor of Pennsylvania, was one of the candidates for the presidency of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance which recently convened in Rome.

Although she was not elected—that honor falling to Mrs. Corbett Ashby of England—she established herself as one of the foremost exponents of the feminine cause in the United States and as one of the chief lieutenants of Mrs. C. F. R. Chapman, Cat in the Hat.

Helped Elect Husbands.
It is no secret that Mrs. Pinchot deserves much credit for the election of her husband against the wishes of the political machine in Pennsylvania, since it was she who persuaded him to enter competitive politics and campaigned strenuously for him during the pre-election contest.

Mrs. Pinchot's keen perception of things political was not born of her latest experience. Its beginning dates back to the Bull Moose days under the leadership of Theodore Roosevelt.

Miss Cornelia Elizabeth Bryce of New York city heard the call and enlisted under the Bull Moose banner. Her family was socially prominent, while her maternal uncle was J. Sergeant Cram, a Democrat, than whom there was no more ardent politician among the followers of Tammany Hall.

Roosevelt Plays Cupid.
Among the most ardent supporters of the Bull Moose during the campaign was Gifford Pinchot. He had things to tell about his controversy with Ballinger. Tradition has it that Mrs. Bryce and this supposedly confirmed bachelor were introduced during the campaign and that their marriage in 1914 was the culmination of this romance.

Since Governor Pinchot has been in office Mrs. Pinchot has started an educational experiment which has been pronounced successful. Under her system, which she introduced in the school held in the executive mansion at Harrisburg, the children were permitted to talk as much as they wish, but they were compelled to talk in the subject being taught.

MRS. ANGELINE BROWN, FOR fifty years a town character, died at her home on East avenue, aged eighty years. She was the hero of the battle with the Lake Shore Railroad, and compelled them to pay her for a piece of land they tried to appropriate.

TIMELY VIEWS ON WORLD TOPICS

"RESTORE THE BALANCE BETWEEN PRICE OF FARM PRODUCTS AND OTHER PRICES."

"While the outlook in this country for the coming years is the best, there can be no entirely normal condition until the balance is restored between the prices of the farm and of other prices." So declares Representative Theodore E. Burton.

"Farm products in the last five months have declined a few points while the general price level has risen two per cent. Our enormous stock of grain is a constant threat of a dangerous credit expansion."

"A decrease in prices in the not very remote future may be expected and it will be a disadvantage because of the greater purchasing power of money. We must conclude that the inevitable influence of increased equipment and more skillful and economical methods of production will tend to lower prices while the increased supply of gold and the increased use of credit by the business world will tend to continue the present high range of prices," he asserts.

"The follies of this day and age cannot be overlooked, for folly breeds rapidly and does not escape itself. We must set ourselves against all those disintegrating menaces of American life and build strongly. The products of the home are God fearing and home loving boys and girls, whose object in life should be service to the community as a whole, and not to be selfish and self-centered, and not to have material wealth, which so many of our people place as their goal in life."

"There is no such thing as new morality and I realize that if we have not the old morality, we have none at all, the sooner we will be able to fill our place in this world."

POEMS THAT LIVE
"THE OLD LAKE SHORE"
Past and gone is the famous name, And the new one will never sound the same
"Though we speak it for twenty years or more, Ye Old Lake Shore, I knew you well, And you were dear to my heart."

At one time many of the theatres in America were painted white. The idea was conceived by Haverly, the celebrated minstrel manager, who cept Christian religion," says Irving Bacheller, famous author. "This power of vast wealth, which has followed the age of invention," he said recently, "has led to a lack of authority on the part of parents and has resulted in a revolt on the part of the children, whose only desire in life is to travel and enjoy all the comforts of life."

"As a result of this change in affairs, the old life of the American home has changed to a state of confusion, with divorces ruining the best of families, which is forcing the power of the parents to be lessened."

"Patented Religions."
"We have patented religions, invented morals, idleness, high blood pressure, shock absorbers and tin-ted ladies. The women of today have torn away from their homes and are taking over the work of their brothers—work that they are not fitted to do."

"The follies of this day and age cannot be overlooked, for folly breeds rapidly and does not escape itself. We must set ourselves against all those disintegrating menaces of American life and build strongly. The products of the home are God fearing and home loving boys and girls, whose object in life should be service to the community as a whole, and not to be selfish and self-centered, and not to have material wealth, which so many of our people place as their goal in life."

"There is no such thing as new morality and I realize that if we have not the old morality, we have none at all, the sooner we will be able to fill our place in this world."

In memories no tongue can tell— For of you I've always been a part.

In wintry day and spring time sky In summers blazing heat, I've seen the trains go speeding by. Trains that were hard to beat And which would never fill with pleasing pride.

At the power and beauty laid, Along their glistening sides As sixty miles they made, We bury the name like the name of a friend

And we cherish within our breast A memory which no power can end "Till we are stilled by death. Perhaps when we sight the shining strand, And pass through the "Golden door"

We'll take a train for "the Beulah land," Once more on the "Old Lake Shore."

—Fred F. Curtis.

SOUTHAMPTON, July 5.—Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador to the United States who arrived today, said he would probably confer with Roland McNell, under secretary for foreign affairs who heads the committee dividing England's plan of cooperation with the United States to prevent smuggling liquor into America from British ports.

At one time many of the theatres in America were painted white. The idea was conceived by Haverly, the celebrated minstrel manager, who thought that white was a lack of color.

The Truth About Eczema and Piles

"Thousands and thousands of people," says Peterson of Buffalo, "learning every week that one should use Peterson's Ointment will ask for it and banish piles, and the grateful letters I receive are worth more to me than money."

Death at the Steering Wheel
Every second car you see is driven by a person who needs glasses. Don't wait for a law compelling every driver to have his eyes examined before he is granted a driver's license. If you drive a car, you owe it to yourself and to humanity, to have your eyes examined today.

Good Engineering—That's The Answer!

ONE reason why you hear so many motorists give first place to Lancaster Tires today is because Lancaster pioneered in better tire engineering.

The beveled buttress which reinforces the tread blocks, slowing up tread wear to a remarkable degree, was developed by Lancaster three years ago.

Lancaster broke away from the cylindrical tire idea—and gave to the world the broad, flat tread. Maximum tractive surface, vacuumized grip, and "cornerless" tread blocks that roll smoothly, yet are remarkable for non-skid qualities—these are only a few of the many developments and refinements that have lifted Lancasters above the level of "well-known, standard tires."

Lancaster Tires are not merely honestly well-built. They are ingeniously well-built—by tire scientists. Lancaster construction has established valuable precedents for the whole tire industry.

Come in and see these better tires—today.

MISS CLEO B. DUNLAP IS WEDDED TO HENRY SNELL

A very quiet and pretty wedding took place this morning at 10:30 when Miss Cleo B. Dunlap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Snell, of East River street, became the bride of Henry Snell, of Lake avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. L. Burner at his home on East avenue.

The bride was charmingly gowned in sand colored tulle and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. She was attended by her bridesmaid, Miss Mary Snell, and her maid of honor, Miss Mary Snell. The groom was in a tuxedo and carried a sword.

After the ceremony the party moved to the home of the bride's parents where a twelve o'clock dinner was served. The dining room was decorated with pink and white flowers. The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives.

The newly wedded couple, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snell, left for a motor trip through the country. They will be in Cleveland for some time after which they will reside in Elyria.

ROTARIANS HEAR CONVENTION REPORTS

Among interesting notes of the International Rotary convention held in St. Louis recently and presented at the Tuesday luncheon meeting of the club by Edgar Allen, Kellogg Day and Ralph Fay were those concerning the arrival of Rotarian Warren C. Harding and Mrs. Harding at the convention hall amid an ovation.

President Harding gave an inspiring address and said in part: "And the thing that would needs today more than anything else is to understand that only service will make the restoration that came of the tumultuous world war, and if we can all get down to service, humble service, honest service, helpful service, the things that humanity must do to make the recovery, then there will come out of the great despondency and discouragement and distress of the world a new order, and some day when we acclaim it I shall fancy I see the emblems of Rotary in the foreground, because you—of Rotary—representative of the best we have in America, have played your big part in making service one of the appraised offerings of humankind worth while."

Says She Is The Happiest Woman In Detroit

"I'm the happiest woman in Detroit, and words just can't express my gratitude to Tanlac," declared Mrs. Jenny Countryman, highly esteemed resident of 1265 Plum Street, Detroit.

"For nearly 10 years my liver and kidneys bothered me so much that each time I felt an attack coming on I thought surely it would be my last one. It used to take me 15 minutes to get out of my chair, and I couldn't stoop over at all without bracing with my hands on my back. My skin was a swallow yellow, and at night my kidneys worried me so much my sleep was very broken."

"But by the time I finished my Tanlac treatment I was like a new person. My kidneys and liver never bother me a particle now, and I can stoop and bend just as easily as I could, even when a girl. My skin has a clear, healthy color and I sleep like a child all night without waking. I can tell anyone how good Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold."

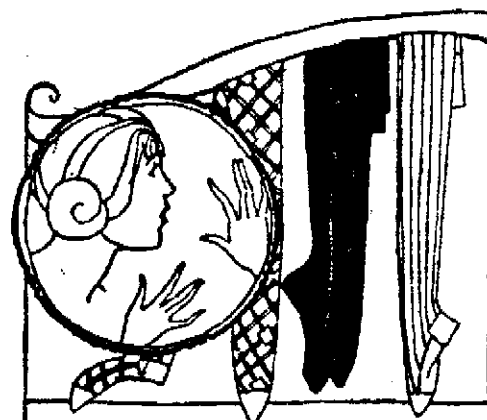

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.—Advt.
